When you whisper it comes out a scream
Every word is thunder in my mind
And when you smile the sky flashes why
Lit from a bolt of lightning in the night
I can hear them trying to bring me back
But I can't wake up anymore
I'm a cynic but I have fallen for you
You make me a believer
You're my life support
There's no use in throwing fists into stone
Not everything around us was meant to move
But bloody fists go on beating all the same
There are those who don't want to hear the truth
Prechorus
Chorus
Camped outside your front door
With a rose in hand I stood in wait
I would've waited a thousand long years
To get another chance to see your face
You never came like you said you would
And I stand freezing in the rain
To you it was just an oversight
But to me it was like needles in my veins
Stay awake
It's getting to cold now
It's not too late
There's more to this know I know
