Follow me
As I leave behind
Every breath I've known
And as I sleep
Would I let you hide
All your fears alone

And now I
I'll never cry for you
Stained with charms of all we knew
So stretch the skin over my eyes
When I die
When I die
When I die

And as the days slowly pass me by
Could you keep me from
From wondering why
With a word to wash away

And now I
I'll never cry for you
Stained with charms of all we knew
So stretch the skin over my eyes
When I die
When I die
When I die
