It's not the same as the secondary tension
Out on the trail of something you could be
But just for now it's safer not to mention
She would die to set you free?

and I'll wait for you?
god only knows what I would do (send a letter to the peace corp baby,
never settle if I thought you made it)

and I'll take to you?
god only knows what I would do
(send a letter to the peace corp baby,
never settle if I thought you made it)
I was always gonna be so satisfied? hey

You're not alone and no one's gonna be there
There's something happening, happening to you
Ten times you were never needed
I would crumble in your shoes

and I'll wait for you?
god only knows what I would do
(send a letter to the peace corp baby,
never settle if I thought you made it)

and I'll take to you?
god only knows what I would do
(send a letter to the peace corp baby,
never settle if I thought you made it)

Cos nobody wants to know him,
he's better off left alone?
and who am I to say I'll take you on?
I'll take you

It's not the same as the secondary tension
Out on the trail of something you could be
But just for now it's safer not to mention
She would die to set you free?

and I?ll wait for you?
god only knows what I would do
(send a letter to the peace corp baby,
never settle if I thought you made it)

and I?ll take to you?
god only knows what I would do
(send a letter to the peace corp baby,
never settle if I thought you made it)

I was always gonna be so satisfied?
