Where the river foams and surges to the sea
Silver figures rise to find me
Wise and as daring
Following the heart's cry
I am that deep pool
I am that dark spring
Warm with a mystery
I may reveal to you
In time
(Time holds the heart's key)
Key to everything is love
(Love makes the heart flower)
Flowers into a deep desire
(Passion in the heart's fire)
Passion and desire
See the eagle rise above the open plain
Golden in the morning air
Weaving and soaring
Watchful and protecting
I am your shelter
I will enfold you
Warm with a mystery
I may reveal to you
In time
(Time holds the heart's key)
Key to everything is love
(Love makes the heart flower)
Flowers into a deep desire
(Passion in the heart's fire)
Passion and desire
