"An Eye For An Eye"

I sit here thinking, remembering all of the "I love you's"
Well I'm taking them all back..
Because these cold January nights, leave me feeling hollow inside (I bet u think it's funny now) I'm sorry for ever letting you into my life, now all that's left is hate

[Chorus]

This world is better without you,
An eye for an eye
A deserving fate for you And these bitter words, cause your lies mean nothing they mean nothing anymore

I turn to friends for strength, I search for understanding
I still search for something right
And this 16-hour drive have me going crazy inside my heart dies I cry

[Chorus]
