This is a song for you
This is a song for you
This is a song for you, you crazy fool

Time runs fast
Can't you see?
The world belongs to you and me

Reality is a lie,
Believe it, or you die
Dark grey can be green
There are many things to be seen

Time runs fast
Can't you see?
The world belongs to you and me

This is a song for you
This is a song for you
This is a song for you, you crazy fool

Time runs fast
Can't you see?
The world belongs to you and me

Finally, time, too hard to die
Finally, time, too hard to die
Death before dying
Death before dying
Death before dying

The world belongs to noone
Only hurt by someone
We're running to the end
by a long lasting death

Time runs fast
can't you see?
The worl belongs to you and me
