Gotta get my feet back on the one
Get up, pack
All my shit and run
I pack light nothing in the way
I won't look back
I'm surer everyday
Oh I won't hesitate
And I'm surer everyday
Got my feet planted on the ground
From the wisdom that I found
I can see the light
And I finally got it right
And I'm through with talking all the time
chasing dollars for a dime

Gotta get back into the race
Brace myself tighten my shoelace
Bring on more cheddar for my plate
My appetite is rising and so is my pulse rate
Oh I'm here to stay
No matter what might come my way
And I keep my face in the light
Not afraid of any height
I won't hesitate kick the wall down till it breaks
And I'm through with talking all the time
chasing dollars for a dime
And I keep my face in the light
Not afraid of any height

Gotta get my feet back on the one
Get up, pack
All my shit and run
I pack light nothing in the way
I won't look back
My life is clear as day, hey
Oh I'm here to stay
No matter what might come my way
My feet are planted on the ground from the wisdom
That I found
I can see the light and I finally got it right
And I'm through with talking all the time

Keep my face in the light
Not afraid of any height
My feet are planted on the ground from the wisdom
That I found
My feet are planted on the ground from the wisdom
That I found
My feet are planted on the ground from the wisdom
That I found
