There's a man with a bruise on his hand and it got there from breaking his back sowing seeds on another man's land oh damn There's woman at home and it hurts to the bone rips out her soul why he does it he don't even know oh no
There's a child in the womb and he's already doomed
Ghetto consumes and he probably won't see 22
And that ain't cool

Help me tell me what could ever be heavier than that Never seeing what we could have achieved with the weight of the world on our backs

Money makes the world go round
Build us up to break us down
Can we last another round
Long enough to break that chain
Money makes the world go round
Build us up to break us down
Can we last another 'round
Long enough to break that chain

There's a boy in the core on a strange foreign shore Fighting a war but don't know what he's fighting it for
No more
There's a fence surrounding the project housing People are drowning the problems they can't get in And can't get out
And the jar is filled, you can swallow the pill
But you never get better, the money is keeping you ill
And that's for real

Help me tell me what could ever be heavier than that Never seeing what we could

backs

Money makes the world go round
Build us up to break up down
Can we last another round
Long enough to break that chain
Money makes the world go round
Build us up to break us down
Can we last another 'round
Long enough to break that chain

Money makes the world go round
Build us up to break up down
Long enough to break that chain
