Take a deep breath and let it out. This is the conversation we've been running from. So what's left to question now? Do you really believe that you're the only one who wants to know a hope to hold? It's still your choice to listen to the still small voice. So don't go. I'm begging don't do this. We're gonna get through this fight tonight. These Angels around you will carry you through this life. I can't explain everything as you sit back and remain unmoved, because nothing seems to change. You're still the same skeptic seeking out the proof you need to know before you let go. It's still your choice to listen to the still small voice. I don't know what else I'm supposed to say, but I'm willing to listen all the same. It doesn't matter now because you have your way. It doesn't matter now because you've got me to blame. It's just too easy for you to walk away. You're never alone. Hold onto hope.
