The morning sun starts to shine
I have tears in my eyes
Here I am all alone
As I start to realize
The feelings that I have for you
Keep hurting me inside

My day begins with simple thoughts of you
Hoping tomorrow will be me and you
Sharing dreams meant to be
And makin' those dreams come true
I can hold on another day
All I need is you

But will you love me?
And show me that you care?
When i need you
Will you always be there?
But if you leave me
I swear this is true
My love will always be with you

My nights end with just one wish
That's for you to hold me in the dark
And help me make it come true
Cause the pain inside of me
Would all melt away
If you were here with me
And promise me you'd stay

REPEAT CHORUS: 2x
