Due to you
(I'm a Woman)
(Album:Sandra Pires)

The thing about love is that there's nobody knowing it well enough to keep oneself out of stress I'm - so into you can't get over this love stop doing what you're doing to me coz I feel lonely at night the hours creep and nothing seems right come quick / look at me coz you're welcome in my arms due to you / I give in I'm in love, I'm alive, I'm a woman Due to you / rain or shine I don't care, I don't mind, I'm a woman This is a nonstop fantasy burning deep inside of me I guess it is/ it's all due to you baby I can't wait don't you realize I'm in love, I'm alive, I'm a woman

It's all due to you

The thing about faith is that it's ways are too intricate noone out there seems to practise what they preach in a day or two I'll be over this mess stop /acting as if I was only last on your list I know you can't forget me like this
come quick / look at me
you're welcome in my arms
