

Spank Boy "Perfect Day"

Visit "Perfect Day" on MotoLyrics.com

It started out when i woke i got up out of bed i had a feeling there was something good inside my head, i don't know what it was but i was feeling good i told myself today was going to be just like it should i step outside, yeah the sun comes down on me i hit the sky with a smile that's where i wanna be i know everything's going to go my way doesn't matter what you say

It was a perfect day
Sun shining on me boy
Knew that it could never end
It was a perfect day
Sun shining on a rude boy
Knew that it could never end

Sun is shining bright like i have never seen easy skankin easy like it's never been everywhere i look there's people getting down everywhere i look, good feeling all around did you ever feel like you're invincible? did you ever feel like you're the king of it all i know everything's gonna go my way rip it up for the dub thing
