i thought i had lost it

i've been searching for something thats never been there it only exists in my dreams, but how i love the thought of such a ... such a beautiful moon with its vivid apparent presence lighting up the whole sky, giving shame to the brightest of all the stars you've got to take chances when it comes to these kind of things (comes to these kind of things.)

take one good shot at it (dont let it ruin your chance)

this moment could give you everything that you've wanted
i dont ever think ill get (that close to you again), the future still holds what will (happen. your so far) away from me,

i promise ill get to you in the end.
Searching for the one who ends it after this through the eyes .. that i see the vision ... vision of you a "picture" perfect memory

I see it ... i see it there or is that is that just me "is it just you" messing with my thoughts

again
you've got to take chances when it comes to these kind of things (comes to these kind of things.)

take one good shot at it (dont let it ruin your chance)

this moment could give you everything that you've wanted

i dont ever think ill get (that close to you again),

the future still holds what will (happen. your so far away) away from me,

i promise ill get to you in the end.

Searching for the one who ends it after this

(have I waited too long to see this face? ..... now what have I done to you)

I've waited to long for this to come .

(no more searching .. Not for you)

no more

(have I waited too long to see this face? ..... now what have I done to you)
