Woman: gather around boys and girls little uno is ganna tell us a story Kids: Aww man aww woman: settle down kids kids1: the story is already scary man Kid 2:i know huh woman: now now settle down kids, go ahead little uno once upon a time in this lifetime of mine it was sadness had me by the balls it was madness had this, problem with tha venom n the liquid boy you betta kick it, be livin kinda wicked twisted thinking bout the mess didn't see me bottle after bottle to the neck man believe me deceive me recommend you don't it's goin fail you observe and have a seat there some things I want to tell you the bad the good and the tears and the pain and the lies and the truth and the fingers and the blame the guilt and the shame the funerals the wakes finer ladies coop on the reals and the fakes and everybody waits to the end to find out and I don't give a fuck ima say it wide out I only had a few still true to the death come and follow me while there still a part of me left

[chorus]
I was BROKEN
I couldn't see with my eyes wide OPEN I was down under all my sorrow BROKEN hit the bottom of a bottle CHOKIN Did you hear me when I called you HOPIN would you except me with arms wide OPEN even though my soul was BROKEN and the world kept laughn and JOKIN deep inside me i was BROKEN i tried so hard to make rights in my wrongs the pen n the pad and the bleed in my songs the light and the dark all the fear in my heart the memories of me a little thug in the park it's tearin me apart my brother and my moms ill neva let you go I got both of you in my arms my lady and my babies a father to my daughters my angels they saved, me when no one else bothered the broke (?) the innocent n guilty the ones that keep it clean especially filthy im sending you this message hope to god you get it rewind this motha fucka if you have to don't forget it the minutes the hours the people and the power fuck back stabbers hypocrites and cowards those that devour slow to your death and eat away your soul until they got nothing left

[chorus]
