You can be my joy or you can be my sorrow.
Are you gonna stay or leave me tomorrow?
This I ask you.
"I can't stay," you say, "I must be true to my man."
Every little thing you do, everything about you,
Makes me want to be your man
And please you any way I can.
L.J.B....Stars in your eyes, sunshine in your smile,
You came to me.
We loved and laughed for a little while.
Still I miss you. But what can I do if I can't kiss you now--

Except be on my way, and live to find
Another special someone, someday.
I tried to make my dreams come true.
In my dreams you love me just like I love you.
Loving you was better than my fantasies.
But now I feel so cold, I think my heart could freeze.
Still I don't regret the past.
I only wish like hell
Our love could last forever.
