From a distance I see you falling away from me.
As I get closer the scene changes, it changes drastically.
Breath in, breath out, we've fallen...
Have I fallen away from you? -Well I don't know.
Have I found my mistake in you? -Well I don't know.
- SO TAKE! What you owe me.
- FAKE! What you show me.
- BREAK! That you know me, as I fall from you.
How I've tried and how you've ignored my persistence.
How you've lied and met me with your resistance.
So as I fall, I'll acknowledge the transition,
Though I confess the change will have little affect upon my position.
Breath in, breath out, we've fallen, APART!
Have I fallen away from you? -Well I don't know.
Have I found my mistake in you? -Well I don't know-- Fallen--
- SO TAKE! What you owe me.
- FAKE! What you show me.
- BREAK! That you know me, AS I FALL FROM YOU!
Have I fallen away from you? -Well I don't know.
Have I found my mistake in you? -Well I don't--
