There is this feeling that too much time has gone by.
Can you feel that you have to go where ever the wind
may blow,
when you look at the blue calendar on the wall?

Its reciprocity they say when they mean you giving.
They take, you take, they give, you give, they speak
and then you answer.
But they don't care if you mean it,
because they just need you to say it.

But this time I can't hide I got a feeling inside.
This time I can't hide I got a feeling inside.
This time I can't hide I got a feeling inside.

Can you hear it? - The seagulls cry.
It means the ocean is close by.
Do you miss it?
Well, you've marked the day you leave
in the famous blue calendar on the wall.
On the blue calendar on the wall.
