A kingdom of the lonely-

We are not strongholds,
Castles made of stone,
Dead and sturdy walls,

Ramparted hearts,
Spiring souls,
Let this city fall,
Let this city fall.

Oh but I am, a kingdom of the lonely,
I've been always on my guard,
Only a white flag, could ever save me,
Only you can stay these arms.

Oh but I, I will love you, if it kills me,
And I won't hurt if you will never cause me pain,
Oh for you I'll never change.

I wanna wake up, in shambles but in love,
broken by your kindness,
Let this city fall,
Let this city fall.

Impenetrable heart, and a mind that none should know,
I make a worthy stand,
but I am broken in your hands.

Still I am, a kingdom of the lonely,
I've been always on my guard,
Only a die'n, could ever save me,
Only you can stay these arms.

If only can stay,
Only you can stay,
I would never, I would never, do you no harm.
