A little bit of blood-

And I will give up my guns, when the war is over,
But I won't give up this fight, until it's won.

If you want to how it's to be won,
It's with a little bit of blood.

And I will keep what's mine, when you don't need it
anymore,
Just give up my life, as I awake in the 'morn.

If you want to how it's to be done,
It's with a little bit of blood.
No nothing ever comes easy,
If the doing of it's worth it to be done,
And it'll take our freedoms,
But we'll find it in the blossoming of love,
And no that wouldn't be a sacrifice,
Without a little bit of blood.

And I will give up my lungs, when they're not needed
anymore,
Just give up and die, when it's my time to go...

And then I'll trust I'll make it home,
With just a little bit of blood.

How long, how long, (will I)
Will I wait, how long,
How long...
