Nothing brings out the death in me
Like December snow
No one can make me scream
Like you could make me scream, my love
You loved to see me bleed
You'd always slip on my blood
Just kill a little kid or two
You'll see what I've been going through
Each sip of wine that I take
Is for love that's lost
Each bottle that I break
Is for you, the girl I loved the most
When you said you'd never leave
Your fiendish smile grinned
Now that you're gone again
It made me look and see that
I'm the monster everyone made of me
I'm the one you held so cold

How I'd love to see you're alone
But you're in no ones arms but yours
Now when I feel inside of you
I feel nothing but death
Dead flesh inside of you
With ants and worms and maggots on your breasts
Take a look inside of me
There ain't nothing but black
A black heart and colder lungs
Prescilla, now you'll see that
I'm the monster everyone made of me
You created something so cold
And now my Amy thinks she's wrong
But it's no ones fault but yours
This monster's all your fault
