It was a feeling - more than a view,
My eyes were closing but somehow I knew,
Friends of mine - friends of mine,
It was a mirror that I'd never seen,
I couldn't stand what it did then to me,
I don't know - I don't know,

(New Dimensions) Giving me a dream I wished I'd had before,
(New Dimensions) Hoping all the time you would be
through the door,
(New Dimensions) Living goes for things I couldn't even touch,
(New Dimensions) Fearing all the time I might have said too much,

I couldn't stay there - I had to go,
Caught in a new world, my life seemed to flow,
Leaving me - leaving me,
It wasn't fear, but I knew it was wrong,
Fighting the beauty and threats of the song,
Worlds away - worlds away,

(New Dimensions)....

They say a man should never see himself - and now I know why,
All the pain, all the tears, all the regrets and sorrows,
I felt so empty,

I had to fight what I saw in that place,
All of my life had appeared on my face,
Haunting me - haunting me,
What do they say when a man like this dies?
What is the spark that appears in their eyes?
Love or hate? Love or hate?

(New Dimensions)....

(New Dimensions) to fade...
