Darkness getting darker every time I see your face the darkness gets darker I cant see the way we fall straight to hell the road is dark the sight of you is darker the game is simple we take the darkest road the world is cold the road is hot the darkness cools the sight the valley is black the graves are falling apart like my life the belief I have that god helps us is the belief that I can hold onto life

darkness gets darker when you are near

I know I lost my life so ill go straight to hell rejected by heaven taken from the world darkness in the shadows is my mind killing me I know life is my only way to hell as I look through other eyes I see a dead body collection in the dark a down fall to hell collects the bodies and takes them straight to hell secrets of the black arts are mentioned to me I look through the darkness of the world and see a world of death

darkness gets darker when you are near

IÂ'm a victim of paranoia a victim of you IÂ'm in a lost reality
IÂ'm in the bitter end of a harsh reality IÂ'm now a dead night warrior for Satan cold demons take away my soul they have buried a angel for its time is now short I have been struck by my own fate soldiers of misfortune march under a flag of death a thousand sufferings make Satan laugh as we all rot a terminal sprit disease flyÂ's across the night sky the sleeping sun will not be awaken darkness gets darker when you are near born in a memorial hall the possessed child cries for

death
in a burning darkness a sprit is born in this pitch black darkness will I ever be respawned there's a destroyer of senses in the corner of the valley of death this world is just a eternal night now no different to death no difference to life a power source of evil is dieing for your blood hunting high and low a dark figure cry's you died for a Jesus now we want you gone Jesus set a curse to the world now it's a world of darkness

darkness gets darker when you are near

hearts of stone make every tear fall a black rose in hand the petals of death a message of evil is now upon this devil filled night the beauty of black magic is now you
