Lyrics: Karl O. Langedahl

Mystical powers grabs your neck
The Lord of light shall rise again From a cold and dark sphere, known as bright and love eternal Hide behind the word of god Slice the flesh with heavens sword Meet the demon of all demons, from above in the dark enigma

Believe in God or you will die Torture is my very friend Side by side we all shall walk towards heaven, nailed by god
Enigma Grotesque
You will never see a common sphere
without God and me
In the light divine, forever lay to rot You'll have eternal life as the slaughter of your faith Come and drink with me your wine is sour and you'll be pleased with me you cannot fool me...to believe or die

I am the story told and I am the untold It's written down by man
It's written, but not true My place is peacefully for the brainwashed, not for me Pain is forever peace
I shall be the one...who takes command

Enigma grotesque
You will never see, a common sphere
without God and me
