Music: Bjorn A. Johansen & Oyvind Karlsen

Lyrics: Lene Vestrum

Let me dream now, let my life be the thing
Life with meaning, let me hope so I can live
Let me see now, the storm you ride through me
The Sight within
Let me trust so I can see

Lock me under, deep...I wonder
Healing, feeling
Children's voice, makes new noises
Don't break their choices to be heard

Let me see

the storm you ride through me

Let me see now, the storm you ride through me
The sight within, let me trust so I can see
Let me be now, let your life be my thing
The life with meaning
Let me be so I can breath

Let me see
the storm you ride through me
Children's voices makes new noises
Don't break their choises to be heard

Lock me under, deep...I wonder...
