Combat is our life Death the only true peace
The honorable will find their end in the battlefield The retake of Terra, is our goal whatever force or bloodshed necessary We're crusaders among the darkness and alien stars
Glorious campaign to regain the inner Sphere
The dishonorable foe must be slain Produced in the caste eugenic bred program as elite battle-suited infantry Soldiers, huge and physically strong, to handle Clan-developed battle armor Sons and daughters of the blood legacy electronically stored, warrior codex,genetically copied Possessed by grace,

we could fight in any element air, water ,fire, earth or even space Fighting a war with even more combatants
Many lives are lost
Our only thought is our enemie's defeat
There will be a time, when our descendants return to reclaim what is our right with honor swelling their hearts, they will crusade against the dark That shining jewel Terra awaits us as it was written We must return, return and protect that what is unique among the stars Through the vastness of space we crusade trample all who stand in our way
