Out from a time before the time
Out from a land beyond the stars
In a time when the ancient ones walked on earth
In company of shining angels
They had survived the first ancient wars
The wars between the mighty forces of the gods
As ABSU with magic power rose, against the elder race, in vain, Absu died
They have survived the time, in mountains deep inside

Unknown to earth and skies
In the desolate places of this world they lie
And the blood of the humans is the blood of revenge
Created by the elder gods
For the blood of the ancient is the key to their world
And this is the pact
MARDUK KURIOS!
Brightest star under the stars
Conqueror of the Worm
