As the floor and the door and it rolls and it heals me screamin' softly as they hit the floor, as the door shuts back.

And the sentimental idea of the future bringing it together, together all aboard.

Our hearts will start, together in the morning,
Our lungs will stop together in the end.
Screamin' please just save me, please just save me
But we start from scratch and hear it all again.

Every drop of blood inside my veins I'd send to you Forgive me for this tragedy, If that's the word that you choose to use

Describe the blues and reds that hung up where we stood before and the band playin' all our songs and it won't be long before,

Our hearts will start together in the morning,
Our lungs will stop together in the end
Screamin' please just save me, please just save me
But we start from scratch and hear it all again.

And you scream and you shout and you're all worn out,
it's four in the morning
all you want to do is scream, all you want to do is yell.
And you scream and you shout and you're all worn out,
it's four in the morning
all you want to do is scream, all you want to do is yell.

As the floor and the door of the ? lightning bending softly as it burns our eyes, our eyes.

Our hearts will start, together in the morning,
Our lungs will stop together in the end.
Screamin' please just save me, please just save me.
But we start from scratch and hear it all again.

Our hearts will start, together in the morning,
Our lungs will stop together in the end.
Screamin' please just save me, please just save me
But we start from scratch and hear it all again, but we start from scratch and hear it all again.

Stop, stop, stop, stop

Do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya

Please just,

Do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya

Please just, please just, please just

Please just save me

Please just, please just, please just

Do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya, do ya

Please just save me, please just save me
