(Talking)

Shorty why,
I feel like if I take a couple words,
You know, throw some words at you
You can get a better understanding of where I'm coming from
And if not, I mean, I can't say that I ain't try Listen
It go, it go

Baby girl

Let me break it down to you
So you can't say I was playing round wit' you
You a good catch for me in the long term
But as far as right now ma I'm gon swerve
And real talk you don't need to be dipped on
So I rather pull over the V before we get lost
You a hot one girl believe I'm a fan
But I don't want you running round like you got a man
I'm only 23, with a lot of life in front of me
And there's a lot of types I wanna see
And I can't give you my all
When part of me still wanna answer my calls
You get it
You speed racing and I'm trynna walk
I'm winded
Before I cheat I rather turn it off
And end it
And matter fact, you can rewind that
It's more like a pause you call it an intermission

(Chorus)

We still young baby girl
I wanna be sure, you the one baby girl
So I gotta move, and if this is true
Then Imma come back mammy Imma come back
mammy
We still young baby girl
I wanna be sure you the one baby girl
So I gotta move, and if this is true
Then Imma come back mammy Imma come back
mammy

I got one named Donna
Pushing a little 06 Honda
Swallowing me whole and buy me Prada's
One named Britney
And all she wanna do is come through do the one-two Blow a little sticky
Monica is corned bread fed
With stallion legs, slim waist, rocked deep cut Vicki's
And China with the caramel skin and the slanted eyes
Cherry red lips tastes like banana pie
Gotta round a weight girl named Dafni
She don't even wait for the crib, we do the back seat
Then I got Jackie, I went and introduced her to Dafni
And now they favorites words is tag-team
Then there's Tinicka
She on that scream shit
And cooking turkey bacon hash browns and cheese grits
Then there's Samantha, Jennifer, Sasha,
Stephenie, Crystal, Ericka, and Yolanda
You see

(Chorus)

We still young baby girl
I wanna be sure, you the one baby girl
So I gotta move, and if this is true
Then Imma come back mammy Imma come back
mammy
We still young baby girl
I wanna be sure you the one baby girl
So I gotta move, and if this is true
Then Imma come back mammy Imma come back
mammy
