Holler like whatever, hoe, all we needed was a reason
And all this money they been showing, they got reasons through the ceiling
All we wanted was a part, all this seeing is believing From the jump it's from the heart, pardon, we.. all this breathing and all this anticipation
And all this keeping this shit even, all these hands in the way

When all they reaching is beneath 'em, all these plans, we're the man!

All we see is what we're keeping,
All you standing in the way is only leading us to be it Bet whatever on the vision if they get it, then they on it
If they don't, but they close enough to see us and adore it

Let 'em watch from over there, let 'em watch and know we're here!

Better dreams while we up, better watches for your stares

Call it Range Rover rhythm, and may we go and get 'em
Al the will of what we on, and may we blow the engines
May it be just what we want, and may it all glitter Just the same as what we saw, cause what we saw was fucking splendid.

All the scenery they threw us, easy to influence Nothing bout us changed, so you can leave us if you knew us!

Jumping out a Range, had us dreaming to maneuver
And motherfuckers trying to brand new us.

Hook:

But all we know is Range Rover rhythm, corner store
signature

I don't do it for me; I do it for the liquor store
Said we knew what it be, knew it what's about Tryina 80 thousand something, something for we out!
All we know is Range Rover rhythm Corner store
signature

I don't do it for me; I do it for the liquor store
Said we knew what it be, knew it what's about

Tryina 80 thousand something, something for we out!

And all we knew is how the sweetest dream couldn't be anymore heinous

Promise if you sleeping, you'll see where we all aiming Cause dreaming is all tainted, but we was on that anyway

Should've never offered us to get a taste!

Good enough, don't want it on a bigger plate

Climbing through the kitchen, tryna get a plate.

Either find a way or go and drill away

Living like, 400 a pair, yeah, my Penny's straight!

Living like the ending was beginning with a great way

Another day, another dollar, we just tryin' to get a day.

And pull a whole decade within a day

Promise you my Penny straight.

Straight enough to 95, harder way penetrate

And open up a lane if they don't give a lane!

Lanes open bigger for that Range Rover rhythm

Trying to open up the hood and put a name on that engine

If it go misunderstood, I'll remain on my pivot

For a steering wheel draped in a vision.

Tryina 80 thousand something, something for we out!

Hospital days, reflecting when my man laid up

On a uptown hot block he got his side sprayed up.

I saw his life slipping on the day in question

I told him I would've went with him, thank God he ain't listening!

Reminiscing over Henny and all of them pictures

We ride around now knowing we're probably different

And how it sound now, know me as part of the feeling

I gave a life, mother fucker honorable mention
