You're mean to me and i'm so sick of it you can't fire me cause I'm gonna quit and I'd just like to say that you're so lame. I need to know that you will always be the same old someone that I knew but I know that you won't so just go home. So long, sucker sucker so long we'll miss your lies and your bad advice and droning on and on. Bye bye baby see you in church see you around when I'm in town but not if I see you first. So long, sucker, this is the end we'll miss your lies and your bad advice and jokes at your expense bye bye baby see you in church see you around when I'm in town but not if I see you first.
