On your own, far away from home
There never seems to be a friend when you're alone
People stare, you wonder if they care
So you turn your back on someone with love to share

Try to see, it's gotta be
It's someone or another is the only possibility
So when you're down and losin' ground
Don't get to thinkin' love can't be found

You gotta stop, stop and look around
Somebody wants to love you
Stop, stop and turn around
Somebody wants to love you
Somebody wants to love you

Hey, you, it's nothin' new
Love will be around no matter what you do
So you try every alibi
And fool yourself some more then wonder why

So try to see, it's gotta be
When you turn your back on love, you miss the opportunity
And once again you're at a dead end
Nowhere to turn without a friend

Hey, stop, stop and look around
Somebody wants to love you
Stop, stop and turn around
Somebody wants to love you
Somebody wants to love you

Hey, stop, stop and look around
Somebody wants to love you
Stop, stop and turn around
Somebody wants to love you

Hey, stop, stop and look around
Somebody wants to love you
Stop, stop and turn around
Somebody wants to love you

Somebody wants to love you
