She says that songs make her dream
Alone in her bedroom, eating cookies and cream
She opens her eyes to the stars up above
Feeling every word within her, but not feeling love
She's a wonderful person, as anyone can see
But as she hears the whispers
She thinks, "No, they can't mean me."
Chorus
She's the only one who can't see it
Understand or believe it
She just closes her eyes with a timid, "Oh, thank you."
She's the only one who can't see it
Comprehend or concieve it
What she does not know is she is beautiful too
(Ooh) Insightful, delightful, never ever spiteful
Oh you know- that's her
I keep hoping, hoping one day- maybe on Sunday
(Ooh) One day she will be sure
Chorus
She's the only one who can't see it
Appreciate or reprieve it
Oh, you are beautiful too
