sister's fixing pancakes one week till it's time you never know how it'll end or then what you may find chorus:
cause it's a crazy crazy crazy mixed up world and you're a lazy lazy lazy messed up girl you're on your way to paris in your black-light world and it's a crazy crazy crazy mixed up world you say you're alone when big sister's down the hall you play your ozzy records and you wanna end it all but you don't have the bullets and especially the balls you see your hair is oily and you're waiting for the fall
and you tell me elvis did it sitting on his toilet seat and you tell me to forget it cause you don't eat meat
you're on your way to heaven in your perfekt world and it's a crazy crazy crazy mixed up world
