"No Love Last"

Just as words are nothing worth
When kept unspoken
All love given was gone lost and left
Crippled and broken

Crippled and broken

All love given gone to waste
All tears shed turned to liquid hate
All feelings lost their taste
'cause no love, no love lasts

No love-no love left
No love-(love)-no love lost

Truth hurts and time heals slow
I'll cry unseen
All love given gone lost only alive
Within a dream

Within a dream

(each drop served soothes the pain
I'm done with crying each glass emptied fills my brain of memories of my self-denying)

No love, no love, no love, no love

(shiny happy people slowly killing me don't they know that a pat on the shoulder don't mean shit when a person's lost at sea...)
