Steady thinking about you
Never thought my whole world would be about you
The way you make me feel inside
My love is filled with so much of your pride
I believe when you say you love me
Because I can see it in your eyes
The way you touching, holding me, showing me
How much you want to be with me

Boy, your distracting me
Your on my mind constantly
You don't even have to be around
You purged my soul with this love we found
With you near, there's no reason to cry
You bring joy to my life, oh my!

Your qualities has made me wanting more
And your personality is what I've been looking for
You delight my senses
And when I look into your eyes, oh my!
I've seen so many amazing things
But non as genuine as the love you bring
I'm relieved of all the stress I bared in the past
Only to be replaced of thought's of a love that'll last

Boy, your distracting me
Your on my mind constantly
You don't even have to be around
You purged my soul with this love we found
With you near, there's no reason to cry
You bring joy to my life, oh my!

Beautiful intentions and no sign of a jinx
I'm showered with romance and many other things
Your my cushion at night and my angel in flight
Your my protein, the morphine that settles my pain
Your my backbone, my spine
Without you I'm paralyzed

Boy, your distracting me
Your on my mind constantly
You don't even have to br around

You purged my soul with this love we found
With you near, there's no reason to cry
You bring joy to my life, oh my!
