"Flower Dance"

The rain of flowers falls on me
Spring it gently plays a symphony
As I dissolve in all of this
I feel that I can make this wish

To find the flower of my dreams
To share the diamonds of your tears
To drink the nectar of your smile
To walk your fragrant fields for miles

The stars are dancing near and low
Our flower dance moves nice and slow
As I reach out my arms to you
I feel that now my dream's come true

To find the flower of my dreams
To share the diamonds of your tears
To drink the nectar of your smile
To walk your fragrant fields for miles
