On a summer day, everything was fine
And the golden ring was proof that you were mine
This happiness inside and love we could not hide,
No we could not hide...

We were hand and hand dreaming future plans
Now there's a shadow on the wall of love and tenderness
What did we do wrong, our love's no longer strong
And I can't carry on!

I lose my mind, when you walk away
This game of love is getting hard to play
I don't know why i feel the way I do
Girl, you know I'm crazy over you
Let us try one more time
We can save our love and get so high
I lose my mind, when you walk away
I'm asking you to stay!

Every time I try to keep this fire alive
I find myself in situation when I realize
That instead of saving love you give it up and go
Baby why is it so?

I try my best so hard, to keep us not apart
To bring us back again, to those summer days
Our dreams are in our hands, we've got to use that chance
We've got to use that chance...

I lose my mind, when you walk away
This game of love is getting hard to play
I don't know why i feel the way I do
Girl, you know I'm crazy over you
Let us try one more time, we can save our love
And get so high
I lose my mind, when you walk away
I'm asking you to stay!
