"Take A Stap"

At night I wake up
What a terrible dream
The planet is void and dry
No water to drink
No spaces to hide
From the heat
Ocean is high
And not enough place
For the life of a leaving being
I see a dream
But how it can be so real

I know my friend
We all can play together
Let's save our world
Under this blazing rainbow
We start today
And so we meet tomorrow
I send my love and I receive it back

How could this be that we don't see?
Eyes of our planet full of tears
Not hearing her voice
Calling out loud for help
Free her from the pain
Be careful again
Do our part to protect her heart
That we can do
Just me and you
Take a step!
