Ohhh ohhhh yah my my now

You may be wondering, hmmm
What's gonna happen
How you gonna fix it
Oh my
With no where to turn

With the weight, yah, mmm
So much weight on your shoulders
And it seems nobody cares

Ohhh, hold on... ah
Gods got the answers... yes he does
To those questions you don't understand
You don't have to worry
Gods got... yahhhhhh he has the master plan
Yes he does,
Ohhh my my
My god

You might be wondering, what else can happen
Oh my my
How am I gonna fix it, oh lord
With no where else to turn

With the weight, with the weight, so much weight on my shoulders
And it seems, nobody cares
I dare you, hold on, gods got the answers, yes he does, yes
To those questions, uhh, you don't understand, no no, no no
You don't have to worry, no no no, he's got, I know he's got the master plan, yes he does Oh oh oh ohhhh

The father knows, what's best for you, yes he does God always, knows how to provide for you
He always, always seen you through yes he has Hold on, to what he's promised you

Hold on, gods got the answer
Ohhh ohhh to those questions, to those questions
My god! you don't understand, hold on Hold on my brother, hold on my sister
Yes my god he's got, he's got, the master plan
Yes he does, hold on, he's got the answer
What ever it is, gods got it
You've been searching
He has it right there
My god has it, everything you need
He has, everything you want
I dare you to try him
I dare you to reach out for him
He's knocking, he's knocking
He wants to come in He's on the outside
He has the answer, the master plan wailing yahhh
He has the plan, plan, master
Yahh wailing(screaming)
He has, he has it, he has, the master plan
You don't have to wonder, you don't have to worry
My god has it, he has, he has...
He has the master plan, yeahhh
Yes he does, hallelujah, he has the master plan
