When I'm with you I only feel completeness
I can taste love on my lips
It's so hard to conceal
The weakness caused by your fingertips

If I told you just
How deep my lovin' really goes for you
And that you got all my trust
If you knew tell me what would you do

All I ever wanna do is love you
That's why I take the time to make it special
Night after night, night after night
Everything I have is yours only yours
Nothing ever touched my soul like this before
Feels so right, feels so right

Now if I told you that you're worth
The world and all it's love to me
If I told you that I wanna birth
A family with you someday

If I told you that I wanna grow
Old together what would you say
If I was to let you know
I wanna see forever with you would you run away

All I ever wanna do is love you
That's why I take the time to make it special
Night after night, night after night
Everything I have is yours only yours
Nothing ever touched my soul like this before
Feels so right, feels so right

If I told you I wanna be your drive
Your strength and courage when you're weak
I send my angels out everynight
To protect you from the street

If you knew I'd sacrifice
Most anything to keep you happy
Would you let me love you for life

It's all I want it's all I need

All I ever wanna do is love you
That's why I take the time to make it special
Night after night, night after night
Everything I have is yours only yours
Nothing ever touched my soul like this before
Feels so right, feels so right

Stay [Incomprehensible]
Stay [Incomprehensible]
Stay [Incomprehensible]
Baby you're all [Incomprehensible] me

All I ever wanna do is love you
That's why I take the time to make it special
Night after night, night after night
Everything I have is yours only yours
Nothing ever touched my soul like this before
Feels so right, feels so right
