Keep one of your eyes open at all times
Make "them" think you are blind, but don't close your eyes
"They" are here and at every place, observing us
I don't make anything, but that's more than i can allow

I feel the fear of uncertainty that is clear... sometimes
And i can't resist of driving for far away, so far I wanted to forget those that observe me, i don't want to be in "their" reach I wanted to forget, so that they aren't able to hurt me

Just for me, to me, i'm still alive Stay far away from me, i know that you want to end with my life, to take me for the field where i died

To take me to the place where i don't want to go, to tell me things that i don't believe My purpose is obscure for you. I'm here because i have to be

And around they comes and go again - Look around And around they comes and go again - Despair

Keep one of your eyes open at all times
Make "them" think you are blind, but don't close your
eyes
"They" are here and at every place, observing us
So, continue walking and living in this strange world
