Visit "Enthroned The Dark Angel" on MotoLyrics.com

Night without moon...obscure clouds in the sky whispers from twilight...terror so fine!

Ancient omen of cursed age hell is coming on the Earth

Enthroned the dark angel...awaiting his arrival born in the candle of Thorns...drink blood and tears

Body without heart

pale faded flower we pray the Horned God we pray the King of Hell

"Follow your sign...a cold moon freezes my heart...a breath of horror when I walk the dark path of Oblivion... the Lord awaits in its castle of perdition when I walk the dark path of Oblivion"
