(The Personal Organisers)
The Philistine rulers were gathered
To celebrate what had been done
To Dagon their god they made offerings
In thanks for the victory they'd won
"Our god's given us our tormentor
The one who laid waste all our land
He who slew us in abundance
Is now given into our hands"
And they called for Samson to mock him
To perform for them Samson was brought
And they placed him between the two pillars
That made up the central support
And the temple was crowded with people
Who had come to watch Samson make sport
And they called for Samson to mock him
To perform for them Samson was brought
And they placed him between the two pillars
That made up the central support
And the temple was crowded with people
Who had come to watch Samson make sport
They had come to watch Samson make sport
They had come to watch Samson make sport
They had come to watch Samson make sport
