maybe if I shut my mouth call (it) a day, wait (for) a call since you're gone and can't go right anyway, any sight
same old sorrow through the street
any birth, any meat
any fray, any beat
any chance, any stay
anyone, anyway

maybe if I shut my eyes
any gap, any bite
since you're grown and can't go through every step killing you same old sorrow through my breath every stop, every lap
every drop, every step every prize, every prove every size, every move

find the people we have lost did you see any cost?
since you're dead an out of sight underage, oversized
call the radio and ask
kkk, lack of sex
holiday, hit the sack overload, overdrive
overhead, overnight

the season came with high demands
we knocked the wall down
now we must stand
