Winds carve my face,
Emotions cold burning my soul
Depression, the illusion falls
A withered statue with eyes absent
Emotionless see all in gray

Fight the lie, hold my breath
Close my eyes, let me rest

Days change to months but the pain won't go away
I cannot live this way
My eyes are failing sight
Lifeplague my cursed life
A fevered burning plague
Release me once again

Waves of depression like a poison in me
Injected right into my nerves
Death I shall greet thee,
Burning away all the pain
The pain it comes in strong holds me tight in its cold fist
My mind is cut with razors
Let go, set free, eternity
Oh princess, end my pain
In your eyes, the key of life

Oh dark princess, save me from pain
Take my hand or take my life
Embraced in thy dark delight
Shadows dancing in your eyes
Take my hand or take my life

Oh my enchantress
Let my sight begin
Free my pestilenced life
Embraced in thy dark delight
Lightening flashing in your eyes
Free my pestilenced life
Lifeplague
