"A Scanner Darkly"

Another day soon melts away
Locked inside my iron hell
Bleak landscapes, my nightmares
Come alive in a somber dance
Around my neck a dead weight hangs
Dragging me into the filth
I refute the lies I see
I reject the master plan

I see it so clear
Lifetime nightmare
Burned inside my mind
Weakness claim all
Will to power grows
I stand apart
I stand for self
Words mean nothing

Ones I knew are dead or gone

Minds destroyed by the pipe
Fate decreed by their choice
Feel no pity for the weak
Self reliant, on my feet
I will not go down that road
Skull paved streets that lead to death
Scanner darkly shows the truth

I see it so clear
Lifetime nightmare
Burned inside my mind
Weakness claim all
Will to power grows
I stand apart
I stand for self
Words mean nothing
