I do not accept your lies
You will not escape this time
Fists smash your face to shreds
Feel the blood run down your eyes
Laugh my boot connecting hard
Taunts now won't flow from you
Pain burns throughout your frame
I laugh at feeble cries

Filth you spoke returns to haunt
Laugh through your broken teeth
Soon you'll cease to feel all pain
Wake to my own cold laughter
I chose this recompense
You endure my pure vengeance
See the way true justice works
Law are words for my revenge
Choke as you now come awake
Numb with the coming cold
Fear grips your weakened heart
Night descending down on you
Lie in your pool of gore
Feel the pieces of your face
Cry screams that can't be heard
I laugh at weakened states

Lies at last have caught to you
Truth is in my righteous fist
Violence is the way of world
I dispense the true justice
Gasp your final dying breath
Stare with your dead man's eyes
See the cold truth of the world
Fists that slam into your face
