Now the heartbreak ends here
Pain that's fading to a dull ache
Never leaves completely
Always at the edge of thought
At night I lie alone and think of things
That might have been
Barriers separate us
Yet the remorse still remains

PAIN

LOSS

At last it ends in this place
Cold earth falls down into the grave
Freezing wind that burns my face
Ripping the tears from my eyes
Six feet below you lie in rest
Six feet above I live in pain
Do you lie alone in a cold damp vault below?
Is there anything?
Are you an empty husk?
Embraced by the void
There is nothing more beyond
Your soul dead as mine
There is nothing more beyond

LIES

Cycle of life that's ending
Twilight that comes before the end
Unseen circle lies unbroken
The end is now the start here
Destroy my soul, I beg of you
My heart rests with you below
