

Thy Repentance "Godz In Purple"

God's wind...
...death in radiance of god's wrath
A blossom of our lifes
Is blown away by eternity's breath
God's Wind, Banzai!

I'm on fire in the sky
In raptures and rage
I'm the flaming torch
Flying in eternal night
The war blows fiery trumpets
With furious gaiety of the mad
And this sound rings in my head
My wings don't hold me
In splitting heavens
I'm the Evil Angel
On purple wind's currents
I've brought for those
The last ardent flower
The inaccessible for looks
Ocean's cradle
Keeps grave of Gods
But they look through a thickness
Of water and past times
At the Fatal Skies
