Now where have you gone
Charly
Charly

Don't leave me alone

Oh
Charly boy.
Here in my lonely room
I think about the good times
Charly
Charly
oh Charly boy.

Once we had a love so wild and tender
But today it seems so long so long ago.
'Cause one morning came
And you were not the same
You went walking out the door
With no goodbye.

Now where have you gone

...

It's so very strange without you near me
When I know we had a love so sweet and true.
How can life go on
Now that I know you're gone
I'm just crying all the lonely
Nights away.

Now where have you gone

...
